

Some Europhotonics help

Introduction

The help for Europhotonics is scattered in several places.

- There is this help file, which can be retrieved from <http://europhotonics.org/help.pdf>
- For administrators only, there is another help file for technical aspects (that replaces the old wiki). The authorized people know the way to get this file.

Europhotonics websites

The Europhotonics public website is here:

<http://europhotonics.org>

and the page will redirect to

<http://www.europhotonics.org/wordpress/>

The portal for the master application is (the blue one):

<http://www.europhotonics.org/emundus/>

And the portal for the doctorate application is (the black one):

<http://www.europhotonics.org/emundusdoctorate/>

In order to transmit information to the current Europhotonics Master students, there is a special place:

http://europhotonics.org/master_docs/
